Welcome to today's visitors Cardiff City who come to Burnden as we are seeking a return to winning ways after our defeat at Fulham last Saturday.

Cardiff are not having the best of things away from home this season so far and last week had the misfortune to lose heavily at home.

As you may be aware, I was not at all pleased with our performance at Craven Cottage. For once, we were completely lost and I hope we have learned the right lessons from it.

I accept that every so often, things like this happen. None of us is perfect, we are only human. We lacked purpose in what we were trying to do and we have spent a lot of time this week working hard to put ourselves right.

Before today's game, I stressed to the players that there is no way that complacency must be allowed to creep in.

After the Fulham game, I didn't need to have a go at the players, they knew the situation.

It is now a matter of consolidating on our good start to the season and we need to have the right attitude.

There was good news for the fans this week when I sat down with Peter Reid and had a long talk with him.

The outcome was that he has decided to come off the transfer list and is happy to stay with Bolton Wanderers.

Ian Greaves

PHIL DWYER (Defender). Born Cardiff. The all-purpose player of his hometown club. Has played at centre-half, defensive wing half, mid-field and striker — but prefers the right-back spot and has captained the Wales Under-23 from this position. A tough, challenging player and one of the finest tacklers in the Second Division.

BRIAN ATTLEY (Defender). Can play either side as a full-back and firmly established himself in the first team last season. Another of the locally produced players who is making impressive headway. Quick, intelligent defender who can threaten sudden danger from overlap raids.

FREDDIE PETHARD (Defender). Has given Cardiff outstanding service since being signed on a free transfer from Celtic. Had a long battle last season after breaking his arm — but finally won back the first team place that is so important to this thoughtful Scottish player.

ALAN CAMPBELL (Midfield). Born Arbroath. One of the most naturally gifted players in the Second Division. This former Scottish Under-23 international who started his career with Charlton and then played a leading role in Birmingham City's promotion to the First Division, has been a vital asset to Cardiff. He arrived in March 1976 to clinch promotion and then, in the final game of last season, scored the goal against Carlisle which ensured Cardiff of Second Division football again this season.

PAUL WENT (Defender). Born London. One of the most travelled and expensive centre-halves in British football. His moves — Orient, Charlton, Fulham, Portsmouth and now Cardiff — for whom he signed early last season — have totalled over £250,000. Powerful, commanding and a man who can start moves with brilliant long passes . . . or finish them with thunderous heading from 'set piece' situations.

DAVID GILES (Midfield). Born Cardiff. A Welsh Youth and, last season, Welsh under-21 international. A busy, stylish player who played more first team football last season than in his previous two seasons put together.

BILL IRWIN (Goalkeeper). Born Newtonards, Northern Ireland. Constantly fights a keen duel with Healey for the first team place at Ninian Park — and came close last season to winning a cap for Northern Ireland, from whom he has been capped already at youth and amateur levels. Has played over 150 first team games since being signed from Bangor.

PETER SAYER (Forward). Born Cardiff. A player who took British Football by storm last season. Opened 1977 by scoring the famous 'Match of the Day' goal that knocked Spurs out of the F.A. Cup — and never looked back. In the next five months, he won two under-21 caps and then four senior caps including brilliant performances in helping Wales beat European champions Czechoslovakia in the World Cup and then the first ever defeat of England at Wembley. Cardiff's second highest scorer with 12 goals and with the pace that has caused him to be labelled 'the new Kevin Keegan.'

JOHN BUCHANAN (Midfield). Born Dingwall, Scotland. One of the finest strikers of a ball in the entire Football League. Can hammer in goals with either foot from ranges up to 30 yards. In true Scottish tradition, he attacks with flair and spirit. Signed from Northampton Town who Welsh-born manager Dave Bowen discovered him playing in the Highlands.

ROBIN FRIDAY (Forward). Born London. A player of whom great deeds are expected this season. Jumped from the Fourth Division to the Second when he signed from Reading in December, 1976 — and promptly made a two goal debut against Fulham. Went on to score some dazzling goals with startling unorthodox skill.

TONY EVANS (Forward). Born Liverpool. Another of Cardiff's success stories. Signed in July 1975 as a 21-year-old free transfer from Blackpool, he surged to fame in Cardiff's promotion season by scoring 29 first team goals. Topped the 20 mark again last season and scored in every competition — League, League Cup, F.A. Cup, Welsh Cup and European Cup Winners Cup. Deadly on the ground and in the air.

Today's Visitors

Cardiff City's involvement in the relegation struggle is entirely due to a run of poor away results.

At home, on their own Ninian Park pitch, Cardiff's points haul matches some of the clubs in the promotion chase in spite of their 6—1 defeat by Sheffield United last Saturday, but in strange surroundings, they have so far collected only two points from drawn games.

And they have scored fewer away goals (4) than any other Second Division side.

The Bluebirds have lost their last four away games — at Crystal Palace (0—2), Hull (1—4), Brighton (0—4) and Orient (1—2). They collected their points at Notts. County and Sunderland in 1—1 draws and earlier away reverses were suffered at Blackpool (0—3) and Blackburn (0—3).

Manager Jimmy Andrews has quite understandably been making a few changes in an effort to halt the slide and he certainly pulled off a smart move recently when signing that experienced Welsh international defender Rod Thomas from Derby for only £10,000.

Thomas, who now has 50 Welsh caps, commanded a £100,000 fee when Derby signed him from Swindon only four years ago. He can play at right-back and in the middle of the defence.

Before Thomas's arrival, Freddy Pethard had been filling the right-back spot with Paul Went and Keith Pontin normally operating in the middle. Brian Attley has been fairly consistent in the left-back position.

Some half-a-dozen players have been used in midfield, notably John Buchanan, Steve Grapes, Alan Campbell, Gerry Byrne, David Giles and Phil Dwyer, who is normally a full-back.

Billy Irwin has regained his place in goal this season after operating mostly as the number two behind former Manchester City 'keeper Ron Healey for the past two seasons.

With last season's top scorer Tony Evans on the injured list and Robin Friday in dispute with the club, Mr. Andrews has been having a few problems in attack. Evans, who scored 23 goals last season, also led the scoring list with 24 the previous season and his punch has been sadly missed.

Friday, who was signed from Reading last season, has never quite found the form which made him Reading's top scorer for the previous two seasons with 22 and 20. Last season he claimed six for Cardiff and has not scored on any of his rare appearances this term.

Keith Robson and Peter Sayer are the possible forwards. Robson was signed from West Ham during the early weeks of the season and he has scored twice so far.

Sayer, who is now a regular member of the Welsh national team, has scored five times — three of them in three successive games last month.

Cardiff are one of Britain's most regular participants in the European Cup-Winners' Cup because of their continual success in the Welsh Cup, which they have now won on 19 occasions. In 1971 they reached the quarter-finals of the Cup-Winners' Cup.

But there was little European joy for them this season. In the first round they were held at home to a goalless draw by Austrian side Memphis Wien and then lost the away leg 0—1.

Cardiff have had their off-the-field problems, too. Their local council appears to have been particularly zealous in its interpretation of the law covering the safety of sports grounds.

At the moment only First Division grounds, and those where international games are played, are covered by the Act but, as the home of many Welsh internationals, Ninian Park came under scrutiny.

Though Ninian Park's normally accepted capacity these days is 46,000, the local council slapped on a limit of 10,000.

This was later raised fractionally but Cardiff were banned from playing floodlit matches because it was claimed some of their under stand lighting was not strictly according to the book and was, consequently, unsafe to spectators leaving in the dark.

Because of the floodlit ban, Cardiff attracted only 1,711 spectators — the lowest attendance in their history — for an afternoon League Cup tie against Torquay.
